14. General Summary of Function/Purpose of Position

This position functions as a complaint analyst responsible for protection, assistance, and guidance to Michigan residents who have questions or problems concerning property, casualty, health and life insurance, annuities, and other financial services. The function of the position involves review and analysis of policies, and actions of entities, to determine compliance with statutes and policy language, and to assure that equitable treatment and consideration is given to the consumer. The position also involves direct contact with Michigan residents to provide assistance and guidance regarding property, casualty, life and health insurance, annuities, and other financial services and the relative state or federal statutes.

For Civil Service Use Only

15. Please describe your assigned duties, percent of time spent performing each duty, and explain what is done to complete each duty.

List your duties in the order of importance, from most important to least important. The total percentage of all duties performed must equal 100 percent.

Duty 1

General Summary of Duty 1 % of Time 65

Review and evaluate written consumer complaints and entity responses to complaints to ascertain whether the entities have acted fairly and in accordance with the contract, the laws and regulations, the Department of Insurance and Financial Services' (DIFS) guidelines, and to assure the consumer has been treated properly in accordance with these.

Individual tasks related to the duty.

- Responsibilities include the review and evaluation of consumer complaints relating to all lines of insurance. Information is gathered throughout the complaint process to thoroughly review and address the complaint. This involves corresponding with consumers and licensees in writing or by phone, researching insurance laws and other state and federal related laws.
- This position also involves reviewing case law, requesting documentation to determine if there is a violation, and gathering information from other areas of DIFS.

Duty 2

General Summary of Duty 2 % of Time 15

Respond to telephone and email inquiries and complaints by consumers, legal representatives, and elected public officials regarding property, casualty, life and health insurance, and annuities. Meet with consumers who may visit DIFS for assistance with their problems or questions.

Individual tasks related to the duty.

Responsibilities include providing assistance with educational information to consumers, legal representatives, and elected officials regarding insurance related issues and problems, such as, interpretation of policy language and laws, standard industry procedures, and DIFS' guidelines. Advise consumers to file written complaints when it is determined that the matter cannot be resolved by a telephone call or through an email response. Publications are provided when appropriate, and persons are referred to other regulatory authorities as needed. This requires excellent communication skills and the ability to deal with all types of individuals professionally and effectively, so that questions and complaints can be resolved in a timely manner.

Duty 3

General Summary of Duty 3

% of Time 10

Analyze and review complaints and make recommendations to supervisor for referral to the Investigations or Code Enforcement Section any complaints and/or inquiries which appear to involve possible violations of the Michigan insurance laws and regulations. Advise supervisor of any potential problems with products or entities identified through the review of consumer complaints.

Individual tasks related to the duty.

Responsibilities include determining which section(s) of the Michigan insurance laws and regulations may have been violated, and subsequently following the proper procedure for referral of the complaint to the Investigations or Code Enforcement Section for further action. This requires considerable knowledge of the Michigan insurance laws and regulations. Identify potential problems with products or entities through the review of consumer complaints, and advise the supervisor of these potential problems.

Duty 4

General Summary of Duty 4

16. Describe the types of decisions you make independently in your position and tell who and/or what is affected by those decisions. Use additional sheets, if necessary.

The individual would review routine complaints concerning property, casualty, life and health insurance, and annuities and make decisions as to the proper action to be taken. It must be determined if the entities' response is acceptable, or if further action should be taken to resolve the complaint. Ultimately, the consumer and entities are affected by the decisions and responses given to complaints and inquiries. In addition, this position requires the ability to prioritize work to ensure all tasks are completed in a timely manner.

17. Describe the types of decisions that require your supervisor's review.

Any non-routine complaints and issues involving unique circumstances or any complex insurance issues would require consultation with the supervisor. Decisions regarding referral to the Investigations or Code Enforcement Section must be reviewed and approved by the supervisor.

18. What kind of physical effort do you use in your position? What environmental conditions are you physically exposed to in your position? Indicate the amount of time and intensity of each activity and condition. Refer to instructions on page 2.

Position duties and tasks are performed in a traditional office environment, which includes considerable sitting, occasional standing, limited lifting, and considerable microcomputer usage, which involves repetitive motions involved in data entry and normal office routines.

19. List the names and classification titles of classified employees whom you immediately supervise or oversee on a full-time, on-going basis. (If more than 10, list only classification titles and the number of employees in each classification.)
